In addition to placing a bound copy of your dissertation or thesis in the Reference Collection for in-library use, the Library would also like to post an electronic copy of your paper on its website so that your paper will be more easily accessible for research and study by other students and researchers via online access. This is an exciting opportunity, and there is no charge for this service. Please clearly mark your permission below, then sign and date this form.

_____ YES, I give permission for the library to make an electronic copy of my dissertation or thesis available through the library's web page.

_____ NO, I do not want my dissertation or thesis to be available online from the Gardner-Webb library's website.
