A photograph of a church interior. Two large, arched windows with white shutters are open, allowing bright sunlight to stream in. The sun's rays create a warm, golden glow throughout the space. In the foreground, the dark wooden tops of several pews are visible. On the wall between the windows, there is a small, ornate wall sconce with two lit candles. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and spiritual.

Go prepared.

God's call places chaplain where he can offer comfort to those who needed it most during agonizing times.

Despite protective masks and gowns designed to keep him and his patients safe, Will Runyon, chaplain director for Phoebe Putney Health System in Albany, Ga., found a way to offer comfort in agonizing circumstances...

Where will God's call take you?

Go inspired.

Rev. Gash serves with joy wherever God places him.

“I felt the call to preach when I was 17. I moved back to be closer to family and to serve my community,” Gash affirmed. “I do not believe in individual success. Anyone, who has been, is now, or will be successful, does so because of the help of others...”
